Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 11 August 2019

There is no need to be afraid; only faith can guarantee the blessings we hope for.

Luke 12:32 and Hebrews 11:1

Thank you to those from both Parishes who attended our Parish Meetings this past week to discuss Bishop Paul's proposal for our Diocese. These were a great chance to gather together and hear everyone's views about the future. Please take the opportunity to submit feedback if you have not done so. The Bishop would like to hear as much feedback as possible.

All our readings this weekend call us to have courage and faith irrespective of what the Bishop finally decides.

The Book of Wisdom celebrates the deliverance of the Hebrew people from Egypt. Not knowing where they were going, it was in faith that they set off into the desert to worship the Lord. The Book of Hebrews reminds us that the key to receiving the blessings of God is to walk in courageous faith even when we do not know where the Lord will lead us! Jesus reminds his disciples in the Gospel that the Father has given them the kingdom and they must not be afraid but stand ready for his return, living out their lives in action putting their gifts and possessions at the service of the kingdom of God.

The only fear that should guide us, is the fear that we will turn away from the living God who has such wonderful plans for us.

We welcome Fr Kevin back after his holiday.

God Bless

Fr Rick
