Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 7 July 2019

'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest.'

This week, Frs. Rick and I celebrated our sacerdotal anniversaries (priestly anniversaries). On the 1st of July, I celebrated my second priestly anniversary, while Fr. Rick celebrated his twenty-fifth (Silver) priestly anniversary on 2nd July.

These celebrations made me reflect on the ministry of priesthood. As I've often reminded our communities, I am a priest for you. This gift of priesthood isn't for me, but for the community of believers, the Church. The priesthood is very much a vocation of service.

The idea and reality of service permeates our three readings this weekend. Just as Jesus sent out the seventy-two of his disciples to be at the service of the message, we too are sent out to be at the service of the Gospel.

As I reflect on the celebrations that occurred this week, I would like to thank each one of you for your support. Know that I hold each one of you in my prayers, and thank God for the gift of you. Of course, I remember my brother priests who were ordained with me, Fr. Huynh Tran and Fr. Graeme Blackburn (RIP).

Let us continue to pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life– that many young men and women may respond to the call of God to serve in these particular ways.

God Bless, Fr. Alister.

Please note that Fr. Kevin is away until the 3rd of August, while Fr. Alister is away until the 22nd July. Fr. Rick will continue to be available during this time.

For those interested in becoming a Catholic
Have you ever thought about becoming a Catholic? Or are you interested in knowing what is involved in joining the Catholic Church? On the 10th July there is an information session on the Catholic Faith and what's involved in becoming a Catholic. It will be held at Parish Centre on Wednesday 10th, 7.30-9pm. Please email Dan Martin if you would like to know more information dan_martin74@yahoo.co.nz

If you are going into hospital……
It is important when a family member enters hospital, that their next of kin or carer makes sure they are registered as Catholic. Due to privacy laws, some hospitals do not now provide names of Catholic patients to our Catholic Chaplains. So if a patient or a family wishes to see the Catholic hospital chaplain, please ask the ward staff to ensure that the chaplain is contacted. If you know you will be entering hospital then you are able to ask your parish priest to anoint you prior to going into hospital. A Catholic priest is always available for urgent calls by asking hospital staff to contact him.
